- I. This attests to and records the agreement of the parties to the extension of "Anti-Terrorist Campaigns Leave" to December 31, 2008. The extension of this leave is contingent upon adoption of an amendment to the County Compensation Ordinance. We are proposing to have this matter before the Board of Supervisors on December 5, 2006 for its consideration and introduction to apply to those recognized bargaining units who are in agreement with this proposal. The Compensation Ordinance authorizing the extension of "Anti-Terrorist Campaigns Leave" is tentatively set for adoption on December 22, 2006.

The County will make all reasonable efforts to advise employees of the extension of the provisions of "Anti-Terrorist Campaigns Leave" and provide reasonable assistance so as to avoid the loss of benefits provided by the County to employees eligible for such leave.
